Santa Can Not Come Without a Tree

And what would Christmas be without Santa?

'The Christmas tree is just as essential as the gift. Make this Christmas one that will always be remembered all. One that the little tots, when they have grown older and are looking back upon the bright happy days of the old home place, will always remember this Christmas as an incomparable day of joy and gladness-one that will always be the standard by which all other memorable events and occasions will be judged.

Every one of our trees have been carefully selected. Nothing but the most perfect specimens being cut and trimmed. Cut and selected by men who know the ideal sought in Christmas trees, the same as you know your home. Every variety of size from which to select. If its a small tree for the children and family in the home of the large trees for the church or community festivities, you will find it in our selection.

To avoid disappointment select your tree now while they are fresh-take it home and wrap in damp burlap of papers-and place in the basement till time to put up. If handled this way it will keep perfectly fresh and green as the day it was cut,
